

المستثنى

We use al-Mustathna in Arabic when we want to convey that there is an exception to what was mentioned at the beginning of the sentence. Some of the most common tools by which we convey this exception is إلا / غير / سوى

When using إلا if the sentence is affirmative and the المستثنى منه is visible in the sentence then المستثنى is منصوب

When using سوى / غير to denote an exception, then the المستثنى is مجرور and acts like a مضاف إليه
